

The Chesapeake Film Festival screens independently produced documentaries and narratives that tell the stories behind the ideas and events that shape our world.

Festival sponsors provide CFF the resources to bring exceptional films, filmmakers, and programs to Easton and Cambridge for the Festival's dynamic cultural experience and to support the economic vibrancy of the mid-Shore. With our appreciation, sponsors receive benefits such as Festival passes, and prominent mention in promotional material, Festival program, on the CFF website and in social media.

CFF customizes benefit packages to provide the greatest value to our sponsors. Some sponsors may prefer an emphasis on Festival passes to share with employees or members. Others may prefer more advertising and promotional opportunities. Benefits are commensurate with contributions.
